There are many ways for you to get involved.

Directly reach the 700+ attendees at the show by purchasing booth space, contributing a door prize and buying a space for your own coupons and merchandise in a bag that will be handed out to each and every attendee. Make yours stand out; give away a spatula with your logo or a great coupon with a piece of chocolate attached.

Don't forget to link your gift bag insert with promotions at your store or restaurant that day. Remember, 700+ attendees will be leaving the Hardy Center at 2:30 p.m.; they're sure to be hungry and inspired to cook!

What's more, proceeds benefit your non-profit historical society, an organization you can be proud to support.

The Isanti County Historical Society was established on November 16, 1964 in Braham, MN by an original committee of eight people. ICHS became an official non-profit organization of Isanti County and an affiliate of the Minnesota Historical Society on April 20, 1965.

The historical society is located on 5 acres in the northwest corner of the Isanti County Fairgrounds. Other buildings on the site include a Pioneer Log Cabin, summer kitchen and a workshop/storage/exhibit facility for our present and future accessions. We also administer West Riverside Museum School, Edblad Pioneer Log Cabin and Blacksmith Shop, Spencer Brook School and St. John's Lutheran Church of Bradford.
